

NOT NUMBERS!

it was few days after the battles on Gaza were over

Majed, who was a janitor
in that school

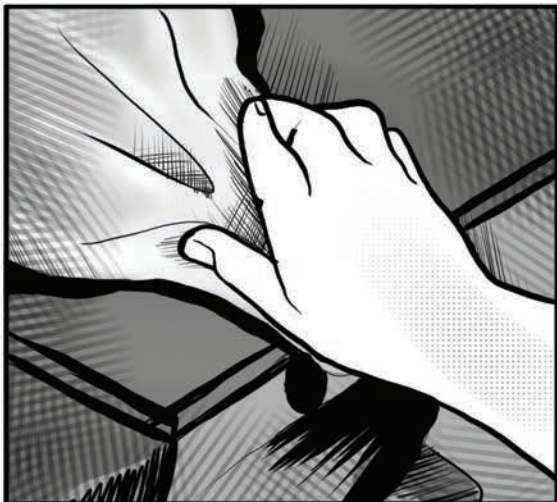

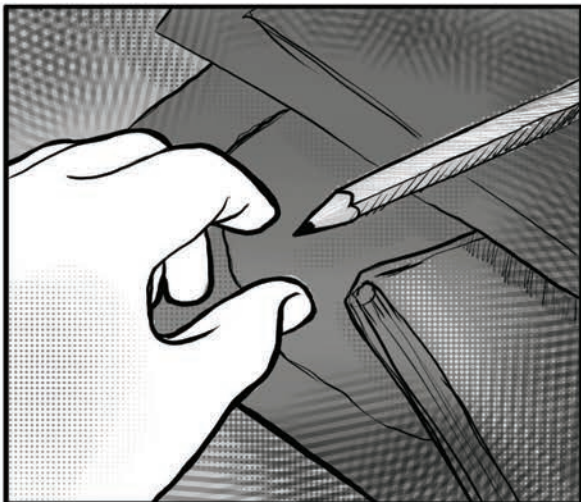

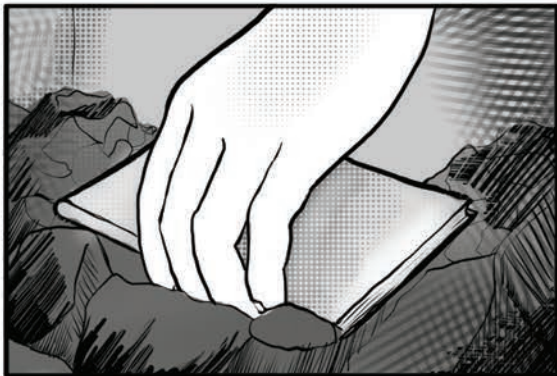

...and hearing

نحن لسنا أرقامًا تُحصى، بل
أسماء تنبض في ذاكرة الأرض،
كانت لنا أحلام تُزهو، وقصص
ترويهما الريح بين الركام.

We are not numbers to be counted, but names that pulse in the memory of the land. We had dreams that bloomed and stories
carried by the wind
through the ruins.
